MISSISSIPPI RIVER RAILWAY.

A pecuniary and resolutions adopted by the people of Lauderdale county, at Ripley, on the 9th inst., were handed us for publication yesterday. They have been made up, we regret, in a very hasty manner.

The resolution was proposed over by Col. H. Paxton, and Mr.

Voracius was secretary. Col. Paxton had an able speech, warmly recommending the taking immediate action in behalf of the cause.

After a short debate, the question was appeared on the floor.

Another resolution was adopted, appointing a list of public men to meet at the Union Hotel on the 24th, at Ripley, at 10 A.M.

On the 24th, at 10 A.M., at Ripley, on the 4th of July, at Duthieville on the 6th of July, and at some other place on the 7th of July. Col. Paxton was requested to address the people at these meetings, and a committee was appointed to invite him.

We are glad to learn from a gentleman just returned from a trip to Dyar, Lauderdale, and Tipton counties, that the greatest enthusiasm prevailed throughout the State.

The people of these counties are determined to make this road. It is believed that these couple will each raise $200,000; Shelby and Memphis ought to raise $400,000.

We also learn that Tipton county is well represented in the Legislature.

A resolution was adopted, on the 20th, at which some of our best railroad owners will present the claims and prospects of this road, so that a corps of engineers will examine it.

The landing of Marsala was effected without difficulty, and the troops

SICILIAN REVOLUTION—PALERMO TAKEN.

From the commencement of the most recent of all national revolutions since the year 1793, the Sicilian revolution, the most recent of foreign intelligence in the geographic summaries, and in extracts from European, French, Italian and German newspapers, have been punctually and continuously published in the "Daily Appeal," and in the "Daily Appeal" of Saturday evening.

SICILY, June 15.—The Sicilians have declared war upon the King of Naples.

The Sicilians, who are now in the possession of Palermo, have sent a demand to the King of Naples, that he will withdraw his troops from Sicily, and that he will give up the Sicilian Islands.
